

SHETLAND RURAL ISLAND MARITIME HERITAGE ASSET ATLAS PROJECT

SKILLS WORKSHOP

HERITAGE LOTTERY FUNDED PROJECT

24th of February

Islesburgh Community Centre, Lerwick

The Shetland Rural Island Maritime Asset Atlas Project (SRIMHAA) is a heritage lottery funded project looking at the maritime heritage in Fair Isle, Foula, Papa Stour and Skerries. If you are interested in learning more about, and how to get involved in the project, learn about Shetland's coastal archaeology or how to record finds while out and about, come along to the SRIMHAA workshop day!

Itinerary

09.30- Tea/coffee

09.45- Introduction to the Project - Charlotte Slater, NAFC Marine Centre

10.00- The Archaeology of Shetland's Coast - Val Turner, Shetland Amenity Trust

11.00- Citizen archaeology at the coast. Learn how you can help with researching coastal heritage in your local area with the SCAPE Trust - Jo Hambly, SCAPE Trust

12.00- The Perfect Picture. Improve your camera skills- Austin Taylor, local photographer

13.00- Break for Lunch

14.00- Walk around the Sands of Sound led by Dr Esther Renwick, Archaeology Shetland and the SCAPE Trust using the skills learnt through the morning session.

This event is free to attend but booking is essential

To book a space please call Charlotte Slater on 01595 772 233 or email maritimeheritageproject@uhi.ac.uk

Funding raised by
The National Lottery

and awarded by the Heritage Lottery Fund

NAFC Marine Centre
University of the Highlands and Islands