Shetland Islands Marine Planning Partnership Advisory Group

UHI Shetland Scalloway Campus © UHI Shetland

The Shetland Islands Regional Marine Plan (SIRMP) Advisory Group comprises a diverse range of stakeholders covering environmental, community, recreational and commercial interests. As well as providing sectoral advice, guidance and feedback on the development of the SIRMP, they have also created a collaborative approach to developing integrated, sustainable and co-ordinated regional marine planning.

- Marine Planning Partnership Chair- Shetland Islands Council: Coastal Zone Manager
- Marine Planning Partnership Vice Chair- UHI Shetland: Marine Spatial Planning Manager

Environment

- Scottish Environment Protection Agency (SEPA)
- NatureScot
- Shetland Amenity Trust
- RSPB Scotland

Commercial

- Shetland Fishermen's Association (SFA)
- Shetland Shellfish Management Organisation (SSMO)
- Seafood Shetland
- Salmon Scotland
- Shetland Islands Council, Harbour Master & Port Operations

Community & Recreation

- Shetland Islands Council, Development Planning
- Association of Shetland Community Councils
- Community Planning
- Visit Scotland

As well as the members detailed above, there are also a number of interest groups:

- Shetland River Basin Management Planning Advisory Group
- Shetland Oil Terminal Environmental Advisory Group (SOTEAG)
- Shetland Islands Council - Natural Heritage
- Shetland Islands Council - Archaeology
- Shetland Islands Council - Climate Team
- Shetland Islands Council - Outdoor Access
- Lerwick Port Authority (LPA)
- Marine Directorate - Compliance
- Fair Isle Marine Research Organisation (FIMRO)
- KIMO

Scottish Government
Riaghaltas na h-Alba

UHI | SHETLAND

Shetland Islands Council